SALLY BASIGA FAMARIN, founder and president emeritus of the Cebu Association of California, is shown above receiving from former Cebu governor Osmundo Rama, during the former's visit to Cebu last December, a message for the Fiesta of the Santo Nino de Cebu in San Francisco last January 24. The message reads as follows: From Cebu, the cradle of Catholic faith in the Philippines and your beloved home province, comes the warm greetings from your paisee-paisanos on the occasion of our annual feast of Senor Santo Nino, who for centuries has been our focus of affection and adoration and who binds us now in spite of the great distance between us. May the Holy Babe continue to shower you with His heavenly graces and keep you under His mantle of protection." The Fiesta of the Santo Nino de Cebu in San Francisco was a spectacular affair attended by some 1,000 people who gathered at the St. Patrick's Church on Mission and 4th streets for the High Mass which was con-celebrated by seven priests. Mayor George Moscone of San Francisco also proclaimed the third week of January, 1976, as the Fiesta of the Santo Nino de Cebu Week in San Francisco.
